This is NOT a co-ed camp! Lake Placid trip is in 3 days!!

A LETTER FROM YOUR EDITOR

Hi Hoomans,

It's me, Atlas! I've taken over this very serious newspaper because, well, I've got the free time and the best nose for news (and garbage).

As Inter-Session rolls in, I've got feelings. Saying goodbye to our First Session and Two-week campers...total bummer. Who's gonna drop hamburger bits now? You were my snack squad.

But don't worry, Second Session starts next week and I'm so ready. My Hufflepuff robe is ironed and yes, I do look fantastic in yellow.

Also, a quick heads-up to our Seniors in session two... there may or may not be a fun scare or two in your near future. I won't say when. I won't say how. It's a surprise :)

Catch ya around the Lodge or if you're at tennis, maybe on the courts! :)

If you're staying with us, get ready for a mini-adventure packed with cool sights, yummy treats, and tons of fun with your camp friends. We're talking mountains, lakes, Olympic vibes, and maybe even a surprise or two!

From what we're seeing, a whole bunch of you are coming and we cannot wait to hit the road with you! Let's make some epic memories

Fun-filled, Lazy Camp!

At camp, we build a community, and when you are lonely, or feeling blue, people are always there for you, even though it's quite hard to be sad in this wondrous place. There is always something to do here. Whether you're playing tennis or making friendship bracelets in the gazebo, life is fun-filled! If you were at home, sitting on your couch, being useless, you wouldn't be able to get anything out of your summer. I think everyone should be grateful to be at camp and everyone should make the most out of it.

LETTER FROM MILLA

My favorite parts of camp are too many to count. From seeing my friends on the first day back all the way until we stargaze on the last night. Every part of camp is a part I look forward to for the whole year. Camp is my escape from a busy life filled with stress and a huge work load. All the activities are different in their own ways which is a part of why FLC is so special to me. I get to do the things I love while trying new things for the first time.

Thank you FLC for being my second home!
